Ash Wednesday 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On Ash Wednesday, February 22, we will have a collection to support the 50 priests of our diocese who have retired in good standing.

Unless illness intervened, these priests served our parishes and parishioners until they were at least 75. Some remained as pastors into their eighties. Many continue to serve. Three remain in parishes full time as senior priests. Last year two stepped in for many months to administer parishes. Another retired priest has been saying Mass six days a week for more than a year to fill a parish vacancy. Still others regularly fill in on weekends, cover vacations and serve in prison ministry and on Diocesan Boards and the Tribunal. We appreciate their efforts and regard all our retired priests with great esteem, respect and affection. They have served us well. Now we can support them.

Our expenses for retired priests include a monthly stipend, medical insurance, and, for some, assisted living and nursing home costs. Last year our total cost for priest retirement was $2,414,764.

For decades in Advent we have asked for your support for retired nuns, brothers and religious order priests across our country. We thank you for your support of them. However, none of that collection assists our diocesan priests. Two years ago, we began this Ash Wednesday Collection to support the retired priests of our own diocese. We appreciate your past generosity and ask you, as part of your Lenten almsgiving, to consider prayerfully a sacrificial gift to support those, who through the decades have supported you and your family.

Our 50 retired priests and senior priests have served in 77 of our 91 parishes (or their predecessors). They are Bishop Emeritus Daniel P. Reilly, Msgrs. Richard E. Collette, Anthony S. Czarnecki, John E. Doran, Michael G. Foley, and Francis D. Kelly; Frs. Ernest P. Allega, Roger R. Boucher, James J. Caldarella, Paul F. Campbell, James F. Carmody, George A. Charland, William N. Cormier, Andre E. Dargis, Ralph A. DiOrio, David E. Doiron, Charles J. Dumphy, George A. Dunkley, John A. Dwyer, Thomas F. Egan, Lawrence J. Esposito, John J. Foley, David B. Galonek, Raymond M. Roach, Edward M. Ryan, William F. Sanders, Michael Sheridan, Thaddeus X. Stachura, James M. Steuterman, Paul J. Tougas, and Peter H. White.

On their behalf, I thank you for your prayers and support of them in their retirement years.

With every prayerful best wish I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Robert J. McManus

As many of you are aware, our pastor Fr. Dan is an active hockey player. He received the article below from an anonymous parishioner.

December 10, 2022

Hockey priest

Les Costello played professional hockey for the Stanley Cup-winning Toronto Maple Leafs, but he skated away from that career to become a Catholic priest.

Born February 16, 1928, in South Porcupine, Ontario, Les grew up dreaming of playing pro hockey. He was a part of the St. Michael's College hockey team, which won the Memorial Cup in 1945 and 1947. After college, he played for the American Hockey League's Pittsburgh Hornets, before being called up from the minors to help the National Hockey League's Toronto Maple Leafs win the Stanley Cup. But Les had begun to feel drawn to priesthood, and left pro hockey after one year.

After ordination in 1957, he worked in parishes, yet retained his love of hockey. In 1963, Fr. Costello learned about a young man who had lost his eye in an accident. To help the man pay his hospital expenses, Fr. Costello enlisted other priests to play in a charity hockey game. The game was successful so the priests began to play more charity games and became known as the Flying Fathers. The team traveled Canada, Europe, and the United States, and met Pope Paul VI in Rome in 1970.

Fr. Costello died on this day in 2002 at age 74, after slipping into a coma following a fall at a skating rink. At the time of his death, it was estimated the Flying Fathers had raised more than $4 million for charities. The Flying Fathers disbanded in 2008, but returned to the ice in 2018.
